ASH AND READY PAY SYSTEM

Past experience has fully demonstrated to me the folly of an universal credit system, as being seriously injurious to both seller and buyer, (worse to the seller.) In making this change its advantages and disadvantages have been carefully considered, and we make it in full confidence of its beneficial results .-Our object will be to offer such inducements in prices of goods as will insure their sale to all persons desiring to purchase for cash, and render competition upon the credit system entitiely impossible.
